Author & Participant Biographies

David Baldacci is a global #1 bestselling author, and one of the world’s favorite storytellers. His books are published in over 45 languages and in more than 80 countries, with 150 million copies sold worldwide. His works have been adapted for both feature film and television. Along with his wife, David is also the cofounder of the Wish You Well Foundation, a nonprofit organization dedicated to supporting literacy programs in the United States. David is a graduate of Virginia Commonwealth University and the University of Virginia School of Law. David and his family live in Virginia.

Senator Tim Kaine was elected to the Senate in 2012 and serves on the Armed Services; Budget; Foreign Relations; and Health, Education, Labor, and Pensions (HELP) Committees. As co-chair of the bipartisan Career and Technical Education (CTE) Caucus, Tim focuses on expanding access to job-training programs to ensure that students of all ages are prepared with the skills they need for the jobs of the modern economy. He is married to Anne Holton who teaches education policy at George Mason University. They both revel in the adventures of their three grown children and live in Richmond.

Allison Seymour is an Emmy Award winning news anchor who has been waking up viewers on morning news in her hometown of Washington, DC since 1999. Allison started her career in television at the Washington, DC News Bureau of ABC News, behind the scenes, after graduating from Hampton University where she is enshrined in the Mass Media Hall of Fame. Allison and her husband Marc share three daughters and two shelter pups.
